

HANNAH HAZZARD.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Laid on the table.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Hannah Hazzard, report :

That the petitioner asks for a pension in consequence of her husband having died at Quebec in 1814, he being then a soldier of the United States. No wounds or extraordinary hardships are alleged as the cause of his death. If the petitioner, under these circumstances, ought to have aid, all others in like circumstances should have the same aid by general laws.

The committee, therefore, report the following resolution :

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.

Mr. HAZZARD, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reads the following

REPORT

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Hannah Hazzard, report:

That the petitioner asks for a pension in consequence of her husband having died at Quaker in 1874, he being then a soldier of the United States. No wounds or extraordinary hardships are alleged as the cause of his death. If the petitioner finds these circumstances ought to have aid, all others in like circumstances should have the same aid by general law. The committee, therefore, report the following resolution:
Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.
